GENERAL NEWS.

St. Louis, Nov. 19.—Highway robberies and burglaries are becoming so frequent and daring here lately, as to create alarm, and citizens are seriously contemplating the formation of vigilance committees. Two men have been killed in encounters with highway robbers, and people are nightly robbed on the street and houses broken into by burglars.

About noon yesterday, the collecting messenger of the United States Saving Bank, having $35,000 in his pouch, was knocked down on one of the most frequented streets and his money seized. The collector, however, fired his revolver at the robber, who dropped the money, but escaped.

Bernoist & Co.'s bank was also robbed, yesterday, of $7,000. No clue to the robbers has been obtained.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Letters from Acapulco to the 6th inst. state that the French garrison there had been strengthened by the arrival of 500 men from Mazatlan.

Late news from Mechoacan states that the French have collected considerable forces, and scattered the Juarist forces, capturing five Liberal Generals, named Ortega, Paraparas, Dios, Zalazean and Trourzo, who were subsequently shot. This angered General Alvarez, who had proclaimed the life of Every captured French or Imperial General as forfeited.

New York, Nov. 18.—The N. Orleans Times says, in relation to the rumors of naval and military preparations: "We have information that we are not at liberty to disclose, giving positive corrobaration to these rumors, and we hesitate not to predict that unless the French troops are withdrawn from Mexico before Christmas, there will be active intervention on behalf of the liberals, and the traditional policy of the U. States will be vindicated."

Brigham Young has had a new "revelation." He says it is "the will of God that the sisters should make their own bonnets and hats for themselves and their families, from straw and other materials raised in the Utah mountains." The next "revelation" will probably dictate the style in which they are to be made and worn. It is said that Brigham Young has a large lot of rye straw "for sale in lots to suit purchasers," which perhaps accounts for the straw hat revelation.

Halifax, November 20.—The steamship China has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 12th.

The cotton market opened dull and closed firmer, with an advance of one quarter penny on American for the week. Foreign cotton is dull with a decline of one quarter to half pence on Surats for the week: Orleans middling has advanced a penny.

London, Nov. 12.—Consols closed at 82 a 82¼; five twenties 63 a 63¾.

The Confederate steamer Shenandoah has been delivered to the American Consul and will be sent to New York. Captain Waddell, his officers and crew have been unconditionally discharged.

Earl Russell attended the Lord Mayor's banquet on the 5th instant, and paid a tribute in his speech to the memory of Lord Palmerston. [illegible] over, and hoped that the Republic, freed from the sin of slavery, would prosper for centuries to come.

The commission for the trial of the Fenians opens on Wednesday, the 27th instant.

Tom Sayers, the pugilist, is dead.

Liverpool, Nov. 12.—Cotton—Sales to day of 8,000 bales; market less firm; quotations unchanged. Breadstuffs unchanged. Provisions firmer.

London, Nov. 42.—Consols 89 a 89⅛; five twenties 63½ a 64.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Mr. Trescott, the agent of South Carolina, had an interview with the Secretary of War to-day, and received from him a copy of the order addressed to the tax commissioners, saying that the immediate postponement of the sales of the lands for direct taxes in the insurrectionary districts is intended to embrace all lands of whatever character and description, and therefore directing the commissioners to postpone indefinitely such sales in Beaufort, South Carolina.

COMMERCIAL BANQUET.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—A grand commercial banquet will shortly be held in this city. A large number of business men from the U. States are expected to be present. The topics of discussion will be the Reciprocity treaty, enlargement of the canals and building the Huron and Ontaria ship canal.

HEAVY RAINS IN THE NORTH.

Boston, Nov. 21.—A violent rain storm prevails. It is severe on the coast. No disasters reported.

New York, Nov. 21.—Very high tides to-day, flooding the lower portion of the city and causing considerable damage to merchandise.

GENERAL PALMER.

Louisville, Nov. 21.—General Palmer has been indicted by the Grand Jury of this county for enticing slaves to leave Kentucky.

The Columbia (South Carolina) Phœnix of the 17th, says:

We are informed of a most painful and fatal occurrence one of the hacks from Alston. About one and a half miles this side of Hope Station the hack or ambulance was precipitated into a gully about fifteen feet deep. The result was that four passengers were killed outright and three severely wounded.

Among the passengers killed was the Rev. Dr. James Cohen, so long known as professor in the Theological Seminary in this city; Mrs. Van Winkle, of Charleston; an English lady, (name not known,) a resident in the family of Mr. Peronneaux, of Charleston; and a colored servant or nurse. There is great blame to be attached somewhere. Under our present information we forbear comment until to-morrow.

NEW YORK MARKET.

New York, Nov. 21.—Flour has declined 3 cents. Wheat has declined 1 a 2 cents. Corn declined 1 cent. Beef quiet. Pork heavy. Whisky dull. Cotton quiet—sales 2,000 bales at 52 a 53. Naval stores dull. Freights quiet. Gold 147⅞.

THE UNION BANNER

SALISBURY, N. C., NOVEMBER 24, 1865

J. J. STEWART. EDITOR

AGENTS WANTED.

We wish to establish agents in all the counties of this State as well as in all the principal towns and cities both North and South, for the purpose of procuring subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Banner—also, to obtain advertisements.

BILL ARP.

Some of our contemporaries seem to think that the letters of this distinguished literary harlequin are calculated to retard the work of re-construction. The idea is simply absurd, and could only emanate from the brain of those who do not understand what re-construction really means, and therefore, know not the way to reach it. Has it come to this, that we are to be denounced at the North and belied by some among us, and yet not allowed to smile while the infliction is going on?

"Because you are virtuous, prithee, "are we to have no more cakes and ale?"

In all the serious concerns of life, we Southern folks march up manfully to our duty, but

"A little nonsense, now and then
Is relished by the wisest men,"

Bill Arp is the Punch of the Union, and surely if Punch can be tolerated and even made an institution of, in monarchical England, Bill Arp ought to be allowed to live and cheer his friends and neighbors.

Bill Arp is not venemous, he is only comically and good naturedly satirical. It is a complete antidote against the "treasonable plots" of the Progress. We weigh five pounds more than before reading his last letter. We are of the laughing genus—as we laughed over Petroleum V. Nasby's "Sam uv agony," in which the South is so unmercifully ridiculed, we think we might be allowed to "bust our biler" over Bill Arp on harmonizing the women. We plead for Bill Arp. He is the only thoroughly Southern institution we have left—the peculiar has gone up slightually and Bill is all that's left of our nationality.—We don't know Mr. Arp, but we take it that though probably ruined in estate like most of Southerners who are 'much,' he has recovered his equanimity, and like a true Southron, his sang froid and buoyaney of spirit, help him to look fortune in the face, and tell her good yarns until she shall smile upon him.

Recollect, youserious folks, that Bill's letters are not sermons or essays, but merely the joyous outpourings of one who sees a great deal of fun in passing events, and who, we hope, in spite of political prudes, will continue to deal out his foaming ale and cakes "hot i'the mouth."

Emerson Etheridge.

The trial of this Tennessee notability has ended in an acquittal. After hearing a portion of the evidence for the prosecution the Commission refused to proceed further against the protest of the Judge Advocate. We suppose that the decision was based upon the idea that defamatory language used by citizens, is not the subject of a criminal prosecution.

The Commission was censured by the reviewing officer Maj. Gen. Thomas, but the findings and decision are confirmed, and Etheridge, ordered to be fully released.

The condition of affairs in Tennessee is truly deplorable. With such a man as Brownlow, for Governor and Etheridge stirring up the people against the President, we pity them indeed.

Acquitted.

We learn that the finding in the case of Wm. E. Skinner of Gaston county, has been promulgated. He was acquitted of the charge preferred, and the finding approved. This of course insures the acquittal of Boyt who was in company.

The accused was defended by Messrs. Kerr, Leach and Bailey.

Speaker of the Senate.

As the Legislature soon meets, without being understood as in any measure dictating, we respectfully call the attention of the Senate in connection with the speakership of that body, to our townsman F. E. Shober Esq., the Senator elect from Davie and Rowan. His long experience in legislative life, his thorough acquaintance with parliamentory law and usage, his kindness of heart and urbanity of manner, points him out as pre-eminently fitted to adorne the chair. When to these qualifications are added a fine appearance, ease of manner and powerful, yet melodious voice, we think few, if any gentleman elected to that august assembly can compete with the accomplished and talented Senator from this District.

The Grand Lodge of Masons meet in Raleigh on the first Monday in December.

It is customary we believe for the railroads to pass delegates over the roads at half-fare and we earnestly trust that such a course will be adopted, with regard to the delegates to the Grand Lodge. This is a mission of charity and charity alone.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the new advertisements in to-day's paper.

M. A. Bencini, our enterprising young townsman, it will be seen, has opened a Grocery Store next door to R. & A. Murphy's old stand.

The National Express Company has opened an office next door to the Banner Office and are now ready for business. W. F. Watson has an excellent meadow for sale.

David Williams has a card—The Pioneer Line of Steamers, to which we invite the attention of our merchants.

Lucius L. Lanier—large sale of land, &c.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR POCKET BOOK.

A celebrated pickpocket, who was lately sent to the State prison for his misdeeds, being noted for his marvelous adroitness in pocket-lifting, was requested to reveal the secret of his success, when the following, among other disclosures were made. We publish them, as likely to be useful to those who are willing to take a hint:

"I never," said the pickpocket, "attempt the pocket of an old resident of the city, but uniformly strangers and countrymen." But, on being asked how he distinguished them, he replied, 'very easily,' and gave the following list of persons who were the regular victims of the "craft:"

"Persons in an omnibus who take out their pocket-book after the stage stops are sure to be countrymen. Those who stop to converse on the sidewalks or thoroughfares, or to take out pocket-books at the box of pit offices in the theatres or steamboat offices. All those who stop to gaze at shop windows or count money or show pocket-books in the street, or call in at the Frank auction rooms. All these, said he, are our common victims. If I find a man eating oysters or fruit, or carrying an open knife in the street, in nine cases out of ten he is green and we victimize him.—Persons who stand up in a theatre or stand on crosswalls are generally country folks and we make sure of them."

The shrewdness of these observations of the pickpocket must be obvious to all city people, and accounts for the remarkable fact that the city residents seldom suffer by the operations of these light-fingered gentry.

The company has also such favorable contracts with steamer lines from all Northern ports to those of the South, as will enable it to deliver goods at all inland points at rates below the usual charges. The tariff of charges will be based upon a fair business per centage above the cost of transportation, without being onerous or oppressive; nor will it be made less than the cost of transportation, with the view to break down or drive off any rival, to advance to oppressive and unnecessarily high rates. Upon this basis the Company solicits public patronage.

LOCAL.

PERSONAL.

J. M. Goodman, Esq., late Confederate Capt. and A. Q. M., at this post, will be in Salisbury about the middle of Dec., when he will be glad to meet with his old friends and acquaintances.

The Capt. is now in Savannah, Ga., after narrowly escaping a terrible death by sea, in a trip from New York to Charleston on the steamer Quaker City.

We have received a private letter from the Captain, describing the frantic scene during the storm that threatened the steamer with destruction, which we will take the liberty to publish, in part, tomorrow, in connection with an extract from the Charleston Courier relative to the same.

☞We are indebted to Mr. D. D. Cone, President of the Press Association, Washington City, D. C., for the able address of Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury, on our National and Financial future, and for other valuable documents.

Bill the Barber.

We see that Bill, the gentlemanly colored barber, has removed to a room in the Mansion House. Bill barberises without being barberous in the operation, and his shaving is never at a discount. Bill always behaves well. Patronise him.

Employ the Freedman.

We see every day on our streets knots of freedmen apparently without employment. We suggest that now is the time to spade up your gardens. We have had occasions to have several lately and find that they work very well, they are be*gining to understand that it's "root hog* or starve." Encourage them to work: an idle man's brain is the devil's work-shop.

Late Papers.

We are under renewed obligations to Capt. Oats of the Express Company, for late northern and southern papers.

National Express Company.

We call the attention of everbody to the advertisement of this Company in another column.

Recollect that in patronising this company, you are helping to support our quandam soldiers.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A marriage in the market-house. A couple of the African persuasion being very anxious to unite in the bonds of matrimony, and a young Esquire of a humorous cast being acquainted of the fact, repaired to the market-house at rather a late hour last night, and made them one. The scene was novel in the extreme. There was but little deference paid to the conventional usages of the times. The pair were drawn up in line with their cortege—the bride 'ranging herself on the right of the bridegroom. The ceremony was as sententious as it was novel; and as a finale, they were ordered to seal their pledges with a kiss, which they mutually indulged with alacrity, making a noise not dissimilar to that produced by a cow drawing her foot out of the mud. After which, the two made one, went on their way rejoicing amid the cheers of the sable witnesses.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. The post offices on the various lines will be supplied, and it is desirable that postmasters be appointed at once. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Persons who may propose to carry the mails must offer the necessary evidence that they will comply with their contracts; and nominations for Postmasters must be endorsed by loyal men, known to the Governor. To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in thi senterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in thegrave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe, in which country he propose to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to castise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Pollard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re-organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly as we may, await the slow progress of tentative effort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehicle of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behal of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

Proclamation by President Johnson.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmany with a great enlargement of civil liberty: And Whereas our Heavenly Father has also during the present year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season: And Whereas righteousness exalteth a nation, while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof that they do set apart and observe the first Thursday of December next as a day of National Thanks—given to the Creator of the Universe for these deliverences and blessings. And I do further recommend, that on the occasion the whole people make confession of our national sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six-

The Watchman.

THE subscriber proposes to commence in the city of New York, at an early date, the publication of a weekly Journal, to take the highest practicable position on its line of Literature. Each number will contain eight large pages, with six colounms to each page, printed on excellent paper in a superior style of photography, and so folded that it may be bonnd.

It will discuss all the current topics of Religion, Sociology, Science, Art, Politics, Commerce, Finance and Agricul ture, liberally, carefully, thoroughly, and from a broad platform far above all partizanship. While the entire control of the work will be in the hands of the Editor, he hopes to have a circulation which will enable him to secure in its several departments the best aid which America and Europe can afford.

Faithful to his own Denomination, he trusts that he is so well known in all the Churches for liberality, that any publication of his may unhesitatingly be sent into the families of any Christian community. It may be the mission of this Journal to make all Christians see one another in a lovelier light. The subscriber has an earnest desire, and will make a hearty effort, to produce such a publication that where a family can take only one paper, this will more nearly supply all its wants than any other. A Home Gazette, a Repertory of all the best current Literature, a Summary of all important Intelligence in every department of Human Efforts, a Journal of Progress, an Advocate of Truth in all things, a Friend, a Guide, a Blessing—this is what "The Watchman" is intended to become.

The Editor has never been a partisan, and expects the discussion of politics in his journal to have to do mainly with its higher aspects and questions. The only desirable and permanent Union of States or of churches is a union upon the basis of an affectionate reception of a fundamental, political, or moral and religious truths with a hearty hatred of all certain error, and a generous absence of all fanaticism and strife in regard to what is not essential to political common weal or spiritual salvation. Into this happy unity the "Watchman" will labor to bring all within the reach of its influence.

This journal will afford a common meeting ground for Southern men of all views and thus keep our people in one portion of the South informed of the sentiments and views of those in other parts. It will present to other sections of the U. States a clear view of the animus of our people. It will thus secure the South justice and support without promoting sectionalism.

Many reasons unnecessary to state have led many influential persons to the belief that the interests of the South and of the whole country will be greatly promoted by issuing the publication from New York.

The price is put at $2 for the first six months, or $1 for the first three months. No subscription received for less than three, or more than six months. These terms allow one to subscribe for several copies for a short time, for general distribution. The first person who responded to a circular issued just before this prospectus, subscribed for 20 copies to distribute North and South. Write plainly the name, the post office, and number of copies and the length of time, and address.

Box 120. Raleigh, N. C.

HEADQUARTERS, District W. N. C.,
Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 11th, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 3.

Most of the misconduct of the troops in this District, has been occasioned by the use of intoxicating liquor. This liquor in most cases is procured from citizens.

The Col. Commanding the District is sincerely desirous of securing discipline among the troops, but it is well nigh impossible to do so, while the principal cause of the difficulty is furnished by the citizens, themselves.

It is hereby directed that all persons, who shall sell, barter, or give away to any soldier, any intoxicating liquor, of any kind whatsoever shall be arrested, and tried by a Provost Court, and on being found guilty shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both.

All officers, are strictly enjoined to use every exertion to ferrer out and bring to punishment those who may violate this order, and all good citizens, are earnestly requested to aid in its execution.

By Command of
COL. JASPER PACKARD.
